ARE THESE OUR SENIORS?!

Could this possibly be the same girl? We doubt it, do you?

Mary does have her more serious moments. (This is one of them.)

Charles, we always knew that you were lucky and got all the breaks.

By the way, Charles, WHO is this REDHEAD in your bed?

Our sponsor — A man of many talents.

Frances, there are other ways out of Montreat besides crawling over the gate.

Our seniors are very agreeable. Careful, Charles, that is Bob's property.

Incoming FreshMEN (note MEN) greeted by Mary Sullivan . . . with Upperclassmen lugging "bag and baggage" from first to third . . . and . . .

Informal get-to-gethers that spelled FUN.

The Reception in Assembly Inn Lobby with Marilyn and Marvin thoroughly aghast . . . and . . .

Dr. Jackson . . . and Patty, do you think that you are almost through the reception line!? Nothing doing.

Parties by the different organizations . . . this brought unusual people—er—we mean costumes.

The Freshman Talent Show when "Talent" really showed, huh, Jim, Jimmy, and Ben?

And the glorious, nerve wrecking BOY'S week end.

WINTER ushered in Many unforgettable moments . . . plus the Christmas holidays.

Snow . . . which robed our valley in the glorious gown of white.

Homecoming . . . which brought back old grads and renewed auld acquaintance . . . and the Banquet with turkey and Dr. Spiro . . . then the Home Ecoonmics Christmas Openhouse which spurred us onward to Christmas caroling before we journeyed afar to home . . . then the great exodus of the "Chorus Girls" to tour far and wide.

"'Til I Waltz Again With You" . . . Christine, is that what Carolyn is singing?

In any organization, Business Meetings are a must.

Sullivan, What is the meaning of this?

"A Fallen Star?" No, just our Miss A.

Nancy is known for her "Alertness" in Class.

Lake Susan never ceases to amaze us. (Boys, No deep-sea diving permitted.)

Barbara, Cheer up! Things could get worse. (She cheered up and they did.)

Jane's favorite pastime . . . "I Ain't Lazy, I'm just Dreaming."

Mary and Dot's theme song: Hic—"My Bucket's Got a Hole in It"—Hic.

Lorene, do you always concentrate this hard?

Miss Hoyt says, "Sooner or later everyone comes to Montreat." (Nancy, do you agree?)

The snow WAS deep, but Lois IS short.

Carol, stop pretending. This is Montreat, not our 49th state.

Francs, why didn't you tell Nancy that it tasted so bad?

James—One of his USUAL Hard-working moments.

Our Dean really gets in a stew sometimes. Could it be because—

Miss Wilson failed to read the Handbook?

Miss Webb is an excellent math teacher. Lettie learned to count her fingers and toes.

Surprise birthday parties reallycome unexpected — so say Pat and Betty.

Miss McNeill, making out schedules couldn't possibly be that bad!!

"Daddy ,take your time, but do hurry; we're STARVED!"

Mrs. Dunford — giving her rendition of "Houn Dog." (Even E. P. couldn't beat that!)

Miss Wilson, can you identify the birds now? (Not those sitting around you.)

Everyone remembers the fabulous Montreat Gate.

In our more serious moments . . . meditation in Gaither Chapel . . .

and this majestic view from Lookout . . . all "Moments to Remember."
